Dear Sirs

We refer to your letter dated 13th September 2022.

We note your confirmation regarding the Pre-Action Protocol. We would again, confirm that Monster Group (UK) Limited has not infringed on your client's design or design right.

As per the Practice Direction on Pre-Action Conduct, we have attached a set of documents which details the design process Monster Group (UK) Limited conducted for this product. These documents show how the design of the product was developed in-house based on the requirements of our client. We have blanked out all proprietary information.

As these documents clearly demonstrate, our product was designed independently and without reference to any other existing designs. As such, we believe any similarities between our product and your client's product are a result of the two products offering the same ultimate function.

We await your response to our disclosure of the design process for our product.

Your faithfully,
